Guidelines and Instructions

Thank you for your interest in presenting a workshop at the 31st Annual PAM Conference in Gaylord. This one-day PAM Conference brings together professionals and volunteers who work with parents and families to provide relevant information on issues, programs, and resources related to parents and families.

The planning committee seeks parenting-related topics presented from a strength-based perspective with a focus on relevant and practical information and resources.

Proposal Review Criteria:

Each proposal will be reviewed based on the following criteria:

- Well-defined, realistic learning outcomes that can be met in the time allotted and align with the content and session design
- Best practices for a diverse audience
- Up-to-date, innovative, and replicable strategies
- Session design with strong potential for audience engagement and learning
- Clear, appealing, and leading-edge content appropriate for the conference and the proposed audience
- Proposals for commercial products will not be considered

Proposals Due:
May 26th, 2023
