Friday, November 13, 2026

9:00am-1:30pm

Grand Valley State University
Daniel and Pamella DeVos Center for Interprofessional Health
333 Michigan St NE, Grand Rapids MI 49504

Join college, university, public health, and community partners for an interactive 2026 STI Summit featuring current trends, innovative programs, statewide updates, policy, and student perspectives.

Have a unique STI/ sexual health program, initiative, or approach to share? We want to hear from you! College, university, and public health professionals are invited to showcase their work through a brief 10-minute virtual or in-person presentation. Share what's working, highlight innovative approaches, and inspire colleagues across the state to strengthen STI and sexual health programming.

Bring your ideas. Share your impact. Help shape the future of sexual health.
