

Community of Practice

Local Public Health Finance Community of Practice

Inaugural Meeting: Friday, March 11, 1:00pm EST

Join NACCHO's Local Public Health Finance Community of Practice (CoP)!

This peer-sharing forum is intended for local health department finance decision makers — including executive finance staff and leadership — to share their challenges, successes, questions, and resources. NACCHO will facilitate quarterly meetings and provide other virtual opportunities for collaboration. In our first meeting, participants will collaboratively refine the goals and expectations of the Community of Practice. Sign up below and forward this flyer to your colleagues:

First meeting date: March 11, 2022, 1:00pm EST
