DESCRIPTION:

July 28: Let's Talk: Parent Provider Communication

Parents and child care providers both play crucial roles in the development of children. Parents and providers always want the best for young children, but sometimes their perspectives are different, and they may have trouble communicating effectively. Learning how to communicate effectively can help children thrive by providing consistency as well as relationships that are supportive. This workshop will help participants learn strategies to effectively communicate and explore ways to problem solve communication challenges.

Extension Extras Professional Hour is a free online series of professional workshops that provides guidance for caregivers of young children.
